FUNERAL

The Guerrilla Museum

Why wait until you're dead to celebrate your life?

Shrouded in mystery, The Guerrilla Museum's genre-levelling tribute to our final performance has been a word-of-mouth sell-out wherever it has appeared.

A combination of performance, installation, and immersive theatre, this piece has provoked, inspired and emotionally electrified audiences since its debut in 2014.

While details of the piece and performers remain a closely guarded secret, those lucky enough to experience Funeral have responded with staggering enthusiasm.

Funeral has had sellout seasons at Dark MOFO, Brisbane Festival, Adelaide Fringe and Melbourne Fringe. Find out what all the fuss is about.

"This is what art is for, to shake you to your very core."
